

Our Responsibilities

ANTI-BRIBERY POLICY

Whyte & Mackay Ltd prohibits the offering, giving, solicitation or the acceptance of any bribe, whether cash or other inducement to or from any person or company, wherever in the world they are situated and whether they are a public official or body or private person or company.

This Policy applies to any act of any individual employee, agent or other person or body acting on the Company's behalf whereby the aim is to gain any commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage for the Company in a way that is improper or unethical in respect of the relevant countries' laws or those of the UK, or if the objective of the act is to gain any personal advantage, pecuniary or otherwise, for the individual or anyone connected with the individual.

This Policy applies to all permanent and temporary employees of the Company (including any of its intermediaries, subsidiaries or associated companies).

It also applies to any individual or corporate entity associated with the Company or who performs functions in relation to, or for and on behalf of, the Company ("associated persons").

All employees and associated persons are expected to adhere to the principles set out in this Policy.

Failure to comply with the policy will result in disciplinary proceedings against employees, and potentially could result in legal action against the employee(s) and / or associated persons.
